

■ 2001
 ■ 2011
 ■ National average (2011)

Marriage

55.9% of people in East Hampshire are married or in a civil partnership, down from 59.77% in 2001. The national average is 45.9%.

Health

11,613 people in the district provide unpaid care to a family member or friend, that's 1,424 more than in 2001.

3.7% of the population say they are in bad or very bad health, below the national average of 5.4%.

East Hampshire by numbers

What sort of place is East Hampshire? And what sort of people live here?

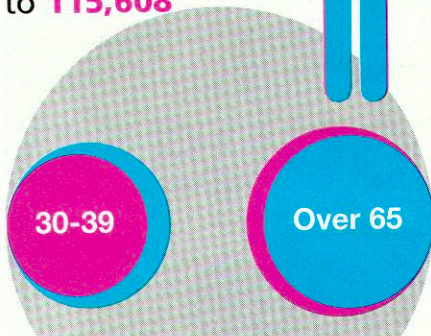

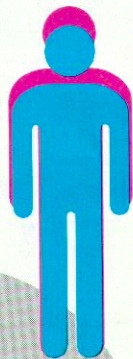

The results of the 2011 census have been released by the government and they offer interesting insights into the district.

Here are some of the eye-catching figures about East Hampshire now, and how it has changed over the last decade.

Population

5.8% growth

from 109,274 to 115,608

There has been a drop in the percentage of 30-39-year-olds living in the district from 14.7% to 10.9% and an increase in the percentage of over 65s from 15.9% to 19.3%.

Ethnicity

People from Black and Minority Ethnic backgrounds make up 7% of the population of the district, up from 4.32% in 2001. The national average is 20.2%.

2,946 people in the district do not use English as their main language.

Religion

There are fewer Christians in East Hampshire, reducing from 84,174 in 2001 to 74,744 in 2011.

Those claiming no religion increased from 16,780 to 30,380.

Cars

There were 10,000 more cars and vans in East Hampshire in 2011 than in 2001. A 15% increase.

Unemployment

In East Hampshire 2.55% of working age people are looking for jobs. The national average is 4.38%.

For more information, please contact 01730 234041 or visit www.ons.gov.uk